GETTYSBURG COLLEGE

PASSES THROUGH THE ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT TIME.

Graduating the Largest Class Ever of Seventy-one Young People—Features of the Week.

Gettysburg College Commencement this week was marked by a number of unusual events. The class of 1870 had its 50th anniversary. Of the class of eighteen members ten are living and eight were at the reunion. There was a large attendance of alumni and the graduating class of 71 was the largest ever sent out. The one thing expected, however, did not happen. There was no announcement about the drive, certain unsettled features not being in a position to be made public.

Pan Hellenic.
The festivities of Commencement started last Friday evening with the Pan Hellenic Dance and it was the usual successful feature. Nicky's Sextette, of Harrisburg, furnished the music and the dance went merrily on into the night.

On Saturday Gettysburg College Track Team defeated Franklin and Marshall by a score of 77 to 43.

Owl and Nightingale.

On Saturday night, June 5, the Owl and Nightingale Club of Gettysburg College delighted their audience with a fine interpretation of "Nothing But the Truth," one of the latest farce comedies. It is interesting to note that the sketch, which was dramatized so well by the club, comes directly from a very popular run in the big cities, and that in preparing their parts the players were compelled to use the manuscript, since no printed version of the play has yet appeared.

The cast carried through the production exceptionally well, so well indeed that after the first few minutes the crowd settled back in their seats with a sigh of relief, and forgot everything but the unfolding of a fascinating and delightful plot. When the actors can make the audience do this their efforts have been crowned with real success.

The Owl and Nightingale Club as a whole deserves a great deal of praise for putting on the stage such an excellent and well finished piece of work.

The proceeds of the play are to go toward the furtherance of dramatics at Gettysburg.

Baccalaureate.

A stately procession left the college grounds Sunday morning at 10:30 and slowly wended its way to the College Lutheran Church for the annual Baccalaureate Sermon, delivered by Dr. Delk, of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, Philadelphia. Eighteen dignified professors, arrayed in their variously colored robes, led the procession, followed by sixty-five gowned Seniors.

Dr. Delk took his text from the third chapter and the eighth verse of Revelations, "Behold, I place before you an open door, and no man can close it." This text was thrown as a challenge to the pagan world by John, but it still applies to us in our great system of present day life, where great corporate interests seem to rule and where individuality seems to be absent. Although it very often seems true that the individual man has no chance to express his individuality, Dr. Delk believes that there is still a place for individual initiative and endeavor. Einstein, of the scientific world, and Lloyd George and Wilson of the political world are examples of men who have pushed to the forefront by their individuality. Modern life is a challenge to individualism and it demands master minds.

The open doors that the young man, entering upon life's journey, must first keep open are those of physical strength and a vocation. A man must keep himself physically fit to win the battle of life. He must have a vocation wherein he can throw the central interest of his life and justify economic needs.

The first of these is the door of culture. A college graduate has caught only a glimpse of the culture which, to obtain, is an endless task if one's heart has been set on its pursuit. Many struggles confront the one pursuing it but if one really desires to enter this open doorway, he must be a man of culture and not make it an end in itself.

Another door which Dr. Delk considered open to the young man was the one of comradeship. The old gospel writer said, "No man liveth unto himself." On the campus, on the athletic field, in the class room, in the fraternity circle one must be sociable and friendly to all. The class room is sometimes a smaller part of a college course. Friends count for much in one's life and very often one true friend is enough to stimulate any man or woman to do his best.

The third door is the one of service. To answer the call of intellectual service self-mastery is important. The tremendous impulses of the physical man must be overcome. Courage is required of all for many wicked men stand in the way. Too few are intellectually courageous enough to stand up for their convictions. "To what end was I born?" asked the Christ. We should ask ourselves the same question. Not amassed wealth, personal distinction in science or politics, or the like, will bring one to a true sense of service. More is required. Mankind must come to realize that he is living in a moral universe and that amidst all the present clouds the right is sure to triumph. God still rules and his message is still with us. "Behold, I place before you an open door, and no man can close it."

Y. M. C. A. Address.

Sunday's Commencement program was terminated by a forceful address before the College Y. M. C. A. in College Church by Dr. S. Winfield Herman, D.D., '99, of Harrisburg. He paid high tribute to the work, aim and influence of the organization.

Dr. Herman opened his address by recalling the activities of the Y. M. C. A. during his days at school. To-day, he said, he sees changes. They are working more for a definite purpose. A few weeks ago he noticed a list of evils existing on the campus and beside it a list of their remedies. This is the kind of work that makes for a betterment of college life.

The world war left the old world bleeding, broken, bewildered and bankrupt. Man after man has tried to solve the problems that arise from such conditions, but in vain. There is but one source of hope for the future. Lloyd George has struck the keynote when he said, "Hear Christ or chaos." Marshal Foch likewise hit upon their solution when he answered: "I take command of the armies under the leadership of Christ." These men, real men of today, have recognized the infinite power that lies in divine belief in untrusting these worldly problems. So it is to-day and will continue in the future. Here at our own school in co-operation with our own Y. M. C. A. we may begin with those small things that lead to the accomplishment of greater things. Let our motto be "Live Christ," and then practice it.

President's Reception.

The annual President's Reception to the graduating class, alumni and friends of the college given on Tuesday

The memory of the event will linger long in the minds of those present as one of the most delightful events of Commencement Week.

He was born in Gettysburg and lived here for seventy five years and most of the time in the barber business. Long before the G. W. Weaver and Son Store building was built, before it was the McClellan theatre, there was a small building on Square back of the old building on York Street corner where he held forth and later in the same locality. He had a host of friends for he had one of those delightful, cheerful dispositions that win friends. Horrible Death

Leo Tipton met with a horrible death in the Herter Mill in Highland township last Saturday afternoon. He was alone in the mill when a neighbor came for some supplies. In attempting to place a belt on a pulley operating the corn crusher, he had to go up a ladder and reach toward a revolving shaft. He had done this hundreds of times and it had been done thousands of times without accident, but this time his blouse sleeve caught on the moving shaft and he was whirled to his death, his neck being broken and the body jammed between shaft and ceiling. Lott Walker was the only witness. He called Tipton's wife, who stopped the machinery and Walker rushed to the Marsh Creek Church of the Brethren for help and entered the building with his message just as Rev. Group, preaching, said, "Our life can be taken from us in a moment." Mr. Tipton was in his 32nd year and had worked at the Herter farm and mill for over two years. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. David Tipton, former citizens of the county, now living at Madrid, Nebraska. He leaves a wife who was Miss Elsie Shultz and four brothers and four sisters, all living in the West. The funeral was on Tuesday, services by Rev. D. T. Koser and interment at Flohr's Cemetery.

CONGRESS A FAILURE.

The present session of Congress ended last Friday conceded by every one to be one of the most miserable failures in the memory of man. President Wilson shows this failure in a brief letter in which he says: "Not only has the present Congress failed to deal directly with the cost of living, but it has failed even to give serious consideration to the urgent appeal, often repeated by me and by the secretaries of the treasury to revise the tax laws, which, in their present form, are directly responsible in part for the high cost of living. The protracted delay in dealing with the railroads, the problem of the government-owned merchant marine and other similar urgent matters has resulted in unnecessary burdens upon the public treasury and ultimately in legislation so unsatisfactory that I could accept it, if at all, only because I despaired of anything better."

"The present Congress has not only prevented the conclusion of peace in Europe, but has failed to present any constructive plan for dealing with the deplorable conditions there, the continuance of which can only reflect upon us. In the light of the record of the present Congress, I have no reason whatever to hope that its continuance in session would result in constructive measures for the relief of economic conditions to which you call my attention. It must be evident to all that the dominating motive which has actuated this Congress is political expediency rather than the lofty purpose to serve the public welfare."

REPUBLICAN KEYNOTE.

Henry Cabot Lodge, United States Senator from Massachusetts, was put forward as the temporary chairman of the Republican National Convention to deliver the Republican Keynote of the coming campaign and he had no other keynote than abuse of the President of his country. He rang the charges up and down and around this idea that "Mr. Wilson and his dynasty; his heirs and assigns, or anybody that is his, anybody who with bent knees has served his purposes, must be driven from all control, from all influence upon the Government of the United States." The keynote did not have a constructive idea, only abuse for the President, who won the world war and wrote into the treaty American ideals of government. The Republican Convention afraid some one might say something repeated Lodge as permanent chairman.

Only a Cold.

Are you ill? Is often answered—"Oh! it's only a cold," as if a cold was a matter of little consequence, but people are beginning to learn that a common cold is a matter not to be trifled with, that some of the most serious diseases start with a cold. As soon as the first indication of a cold appears take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Remember that the sooner you get rid of your cold the less the danger, and this remedy will help you to throw it off. People's Drug Store.

Health

THE MAN WHO SUSPECTS that he has kidney trouble and neglects to take measures promptly for his relief is taking a dangerously unwise risk. If the kidneys are not properly performing their function of purifying the blood stream, waste products and poisonous acids remain in the system and cause nervousness, rheumatic pains, backache, languidness, sore muscles, swollen joints, stiffness, puffiness under eyes and other weakening symptoms.

After long months of rising prices it is a relief to find many things at this store much under price.

In these values in TAILORED SUITS, COATS, SEPARATE SKIRTS and WAISTS, as well as odds and ends all through the sized stock of Children's goods, &c., we are offering values seldom found this early in the wearing season, for instance:

18 Suits of Tricotine, Mannish Serge, Silvertone, etc., were $67.50 to $87.50, new this spring season, all sizes and wanted colors in the lot. Your choice $50.00.

20 Suits of Tricotine, Serges etc., some plain tailored, others braid trimmed—all up to the minute in style, were $55.00 to $65.00—Now $42.50 & $47.50.

Dozens of others with a lesser price range at from $19.75 to $32.50—were at least 1-3 more—many in sport styles of Jersey or Cloth Mixtures—very swagger and yet entirely practical.

About 50 Suits of former season's styles—little change in most instances from this season—in a variety of fabrics and colors—at an average of HALF PRICE.

Very Special Coat Values.

Many of them are very late styles—embracing the very comfortable and practical Polo Cloth Coat in sport styles, very engaging in cut. Also the longer length coats, very beautiful and practical—in various colors—many reduced a full 1-4—Junior Misses' Coats for small women, in the wanted cloths in great variety of this season's styles, which have come into our stock in the past two weeks and which were bought from a manufacturer's stock clean-up and are much under price.

Children's Coats

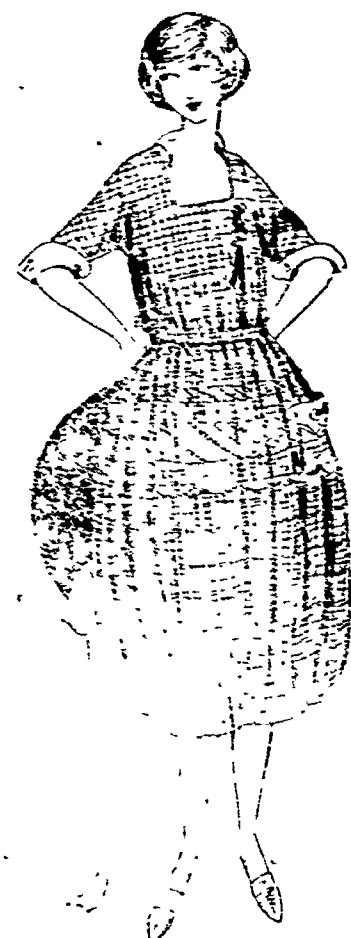

For all ages, and at all prices—less than regular.

Silk Frocks

We never had such business as we have had during the month of May, and were it not for the fact that older orders have been filled recently we would not have this splendid assortment to show now. Taffetas, puffed, tuniced, ruffled and adorned in various ways. Crepe de Chines, various cuts and trimmings, some embroidered in wool. Wonderful creations in Georgettes. Also Wool Dresses in Tricotines and Serges and Jerseys—just the things for cool mornings and evenings. Almost all of them repriced lower for this sale.

Wash Dresses or Gowns

More properly speaking—in Voiles and Crepe Le Gere—the most handsome creations of the season, both in the printed fabrics in the gayest of colors and designs, as well as the greatest variety of styles; most of them pretty and rich enough to wear on any occasion. Very reasonably priced.

White Dresses of Voiles, Dotted and Plain Swisses, Organdies and Cotton Chiffons for the June wedding or any other dressy occasion—handsome styles as to cut and trimming of fine laces and ribbons. Gingham and other Cotton Dresses more moderately priced in a splendid variety—only one or two of a style—going fast—which shows the wisdom of early choosing.

Dresses for Juniors, Intermediate sizes for the Miss—and Children's wash Dresses of every character. Many in broken lots under our regular prices—and all at less than peak prices of the manufacturer.

Waists—Silk & Lingerie Waists

The recent discount deduction sale has demoralized the stock as to sizes and and the odds and ends of assortments have been remarked for quick selling. A wonderful array of styles but not all sizes in any one style—but still all sizes in the sale.

Broken lots in everything ready to wear and all over the store. Haven't the space to speak of Wool, Silk and Wash Skirts—All reduced in price. "NEVER-SHRINK" Wash Skirts—made from fabrics prices based on 1919 mill prices.

DRY IS IN THE CONSTITUTION

By Unanimous Decision of the U. S. Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court of the United States on Monday stamped as constitutional the Eighteenth Amendment.

Section 1. After one year from the ratification of this article the manufacture, sale or transportation of intoxicating liquors within, the importation thereof into, or the exportation thereof from the United States and all territories subject to the jurisdiction thereof for beverage purposes is hereby prohibited.

Section 2. The Congress and the several States shall have concurrent power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

The conclusions of the Court were presented in eleven rulings, as follows:

"1. The adoption by both houses of Congress, each by a two-thirds vote, of a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution sufficiently shows that the proposal was deemed necessary by all who voted for it. An express declaration that they regarded it as necessary is not essential. None of the resolutions whereby prior amendments were proposed contained such a declaration.

"2. The two-thirds vote in each house which is required in proposing an amendment is a vote of two-thirds of the members present—assuming the presence of a quorum—and not a vote of two-thirds of the entire membership present and absent.

"3. The referendum provisions of State Constitutions and statutes cannot be applied, consistently with the Constitution of the United States, in the ratification or rejection of amendments to it.

"4. The prohibition of the manufacture, sale, transportation, importation and exportation of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes, as embodied in the Eighteenth Amendment, is within the power to amend reserved by Article V of the Constitution.

LAME EVERY MORNING.

A Bad Back is Generally Worse in the Morning. Gettysburg People Are Finding Relief.

A back that aches all day and causes discomfort at night is usually worse in the morning. Makes you feel as if you hadn't slept at all.

You can't get rid of kidney backache, until you reach the cause—the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills are especially prepared for weakened or disordered kidneys—have been gratefully recommended by thousands.

Testimony of Gettysburg people proves the merit of Doan's.

John J. Tawney, 234 Baltimore St., Gettysburg says: "I suffered off and on with rheumatic pains and kidney ailments. My back ached constantly and often in the morning I was so lame and stiff I could hardly get out of bed. My kidneys acted irregularly too. Someone advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I got some at the People's Drug Store. I was surprised at the quick relief I received. I am not bothered by rheumatic pains now and I am in much better health all around."

OVER TWO YEARS LATER Mr. Tawney said: "I still use Doan's Kidney Pills, in fact, I always keep them in the house. I know if I take a few as soon as I have any symptoms of kidney trouble, I will be saved a great deal of suffering."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Tawney had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

"5. That amendment by lawful proposal and ratification has become a part of the Constitution, and must be respected and given effect the same as other provisions of that instrument.

"6. The first section of the amendment—the one embodying the prohibition—is operative throughout the entire territorial limits of the United States, binds all legislative bodies, courts, public officers and individuals within those limits, and of its own force invalidates any legislative act—whether by Congress, by a State Legislature, or by a Territorial Assembly—which authorizes or sanctions what the section prohibits.

"7. The second section of the amendment—the one declaring 'the Congress and the several States shall have concurrent power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation'—does not enable Congress or the several States to defeat or thwart the prohibition, but only to enforce it by appropriate means.

"8. The words 'concurrent power' in that section do not mean joint power, or require that legislation thereunder by Congress, to be effective, shall be approved or sanctioned by the several States or any of them; nor do they mean that the power to enforce is divided between Congress and the several States along the lines which separate or distinguish foreign and interstate commerce from intrastate affairs.

"9. The power confided to Congress by that section, while not exclusive, is territorially co-extensive with the prohibition of the first section, embraces manufacture and other intrastate transactions as well as importation, exportation, and interstate traffic, and is in nowise dependent on or affected by action or inaction on the part of several States or any of them.

"10. That power may be exerted against the disposal for beverage purposes of liquor manufactured before the amendment became effective, just as it may be against subsequent manufacture for those purposes. In either case it is a constitutional mandate or prohibition that is being enforced.

"11. While recognizing that there are limits beyond which Congress cannot go in treating beverage, as within its power of enforcement, we think those limits are not transgressed by the provisions of the Volstead act wherein liquors containing as much as one half of one per cent. of alcohol by volume and fit for use for beverage purposes are treated as within that power.

Don't Treat Kidneys
Rough, Warns Dr.
Carey, Specialist

Constant Flushing May Injure the Delicate Organism and Seldom Removes the Poisonous Deposits.

Now that Dr. Carey, kidney and bladder specialist, has retired from active practice, he generously warns people that even the smallest symptoms of kidney trouble should have serious attention.

Backache, for instance, puffiness under or specks floating before the eyes, heavy feet and dry skin, are also danger signals.

"Thousands die yearly because they neglect their kidneys," says Dr. Carey, "and I feel upon retiring that I should tell all who even suspect kidney or bladder trouble about my prescription, Marshroot, which, during my active practice, has cured thousands of all kinds of kidney ailments."

This prescription has been given to pharmacists generally throughout America and is dispensed by them under the name Dr. Carey's Marshroot, a name that every sufferer from kidney trouble should remember. Shuman's Drug Store, People's Drug Store can supply you.
